Principal Report

Changes in full standards teaching and learning per Bruce Messenger, district superintendent.

We are accountable for standards,

Our goal is taking kids from where they are and taking them beyond.

49 out of 50 states have adapted the standards Starting implementation during with district days,

During January teachers are developing new standards.

Math and social studies change,

Math concepts 8.9 are now in middle school Six grade is getting 7 grade math with pre algebra.

Only extreme cases will be excellerated.

Seven grade is now algebra.

Six grade is no longer a review.

Algebra content is in 8 now.

More Rigerrous math program.

Placement math test to determine levels.

Standards are the WHAT, not the HOW.

Standards are good.

Social studies is rearranging, civil war is the cut off for 8th grade.

Professional development,

Johnathan Wright, Libby Black and Robbyn Fernandez are facilitating Professional days.

PE graded on standards. The superintendent did say we can work on greater grader choices?

Manhattan decided on greater choices, improver greater cardio vascular choices.

Pay back results would be Heart rate monitors.

Transitional CSAP, this year both standards, transitional over two years.
